As many of you probably already have heard, the neighbor that lives on the corner of Hetrick and our driveway to Aero Camino has complained about the noise generated by helicopters. Dale is presenting to the neighbor our proposal of a compromise to hopefully smooth things over.

The following changes were agreed upon:

- 1 – Absolutely no helicopters on Sundays.
- 2 – Absolutely no flying anything before 9:00 a.m., nor after 1:00 p.m., and that is Monday through Sunday.
- 3 – Absolutely no flying alone. More discussion probably should be had as to a minimum number of pilots present before anything goes in the air, but for now, you must at the very least have a spotter.

Also discussed was flying loud pusher planes first thing in the morning. There is no absolute restriction at this time, but please use your best judgment as to when you fly those. Probably a little later in the day Monday through Saturday, and minimally if at all on Sundays. As always, we will keep the discussions open as to best practices going forward. Finally, please, please, please do your level best to always fly “in the box”. It has happened probably to most of us that we wind up off course and wind up behind the container and over the parking lot, but even worse, next to or over this particular neighbor’s property. Also, on your landing approach, do not fly out over Hetrick. If we want to stay in the air out here, we have to do better in this regard.

Thank you all for being respectful to the neighbors!
